

Rio Arriba County Detention Center

(RACDC) POLICY 077: SERVING OF MEALS

Strict adherence to inmate feeding procedures is necessary for the security of inmates and staff.

Procedure:

1. Meals shall be served in accordance to racdc 072 (Meal schedule).
2. Detention officers shall inform the cooks the inmate population so that cooks can prepare the right amount of meals.
3. The cooks shall supervise the portion serving to ensure that all trays are prepared equally.
4. All inmates will be served inside of their respective pods.
5. All kitchen trustees are subject to search procedures at any time.
6. Kitchen trustees will go and pick up all trays after sufficient time has been given for inmates to finish their meals.
7. All utensils shall be accounted for.
8. In case of missing utensils, a complete shakedown will be conducted to find the missing item.
